SSN Trace and Address History	X	X	X
An SSN Trace and Address History is the cornerstone of a quality background check. It verifies the identity of the applicant protecting against false or fabricated personal data. Most importantly, it will return an address history for the applicant; including names used, addresses and dates when those addresses were active. The data is derived from 2 separate credit bureau header files, as well as hundreds of commercial and public record sources.
Multijurisdictional Criminal Database Search (Including Aliases), Including OFAC	X	X	X
We take the developed names ascertained from the SSN Trace report and run each of them through the database. In effect, you are getting all name variations, aliases, maiden names, etc. for one price. The criminal database contains criminal records, Terrorist Watch Lists and National Watch Lists with sources such as the FBI most wanted, Office of Foreign Assets Control and Office of Inspector General. All potential violations noted are confirmed with the county courthouse.
State Sex Offender Registries	X	X	X
Review of state sex offender registries for the 50 states plus the District of Columbia.
County Courthouse Searches	X 1 county search included	X 3 county searches included	X 3 county searches included
Most felony and misdemeanor cases are filed in county courts, so county criminal record searches are one of the most powerful sources for uncovering criminal records. County criminal searches return information from the court records in which the conviction is recorded. A report covering county criminal records may include information regarding the degree of the offense, offense dates, case numbers, filing dates, defendants, counts, trial dates, verdicts, disposition, disposition dates, and sentencing information. More information about additional searches   Although 3 county searches are included, more can be performed for as needed. Contact us for more information.
National Federal Criminal Search			X
Live search of U.S. federal court records over the selected search term. This search uncovers criminal court information from the 94 U.S. Federal district courthouses nationwide. Searches include crimes involving violations of federal law. (money laundering, crimes across state lines, counterfeiting, racketeering, etc)

** Additional jurisdiction fees may apply
